Liane Wilson claim to have certification of Certified Clinical Nutritionists
(Click above Active Link)

Dear Judge Oki Mollway,
The Clinical Nutrition Certification Board regulates and offers the “Certified Clinical Nutritionists” designation as a Post Graduate program to individuals that qualify and meet their standard of excellence. This “Certified Clinical Nutritionist” designation requires ongoing education accompanied by recertification to those qualified individuals.

Please find included an email from Debra Cox; Associate Director of the Clinical Nutrition Certification Board regarding an inquiry of Liane Wilson and additional aliases including Liana Shanti for licensed use of the accreditation “Certified Clinical Nutritionist” (Exhibit 2)

This inquiry also included Cahira Noelani’s HMI Admissions Director “Certified Clinical Nutritionist” which failed to produce any results. Mrs. Noelani uses the designation “Certified Nutrition Coach, Health Mastery Institute” awarded to her by Liane Wilson acting as a “Certified Clinical Nutritionist.”

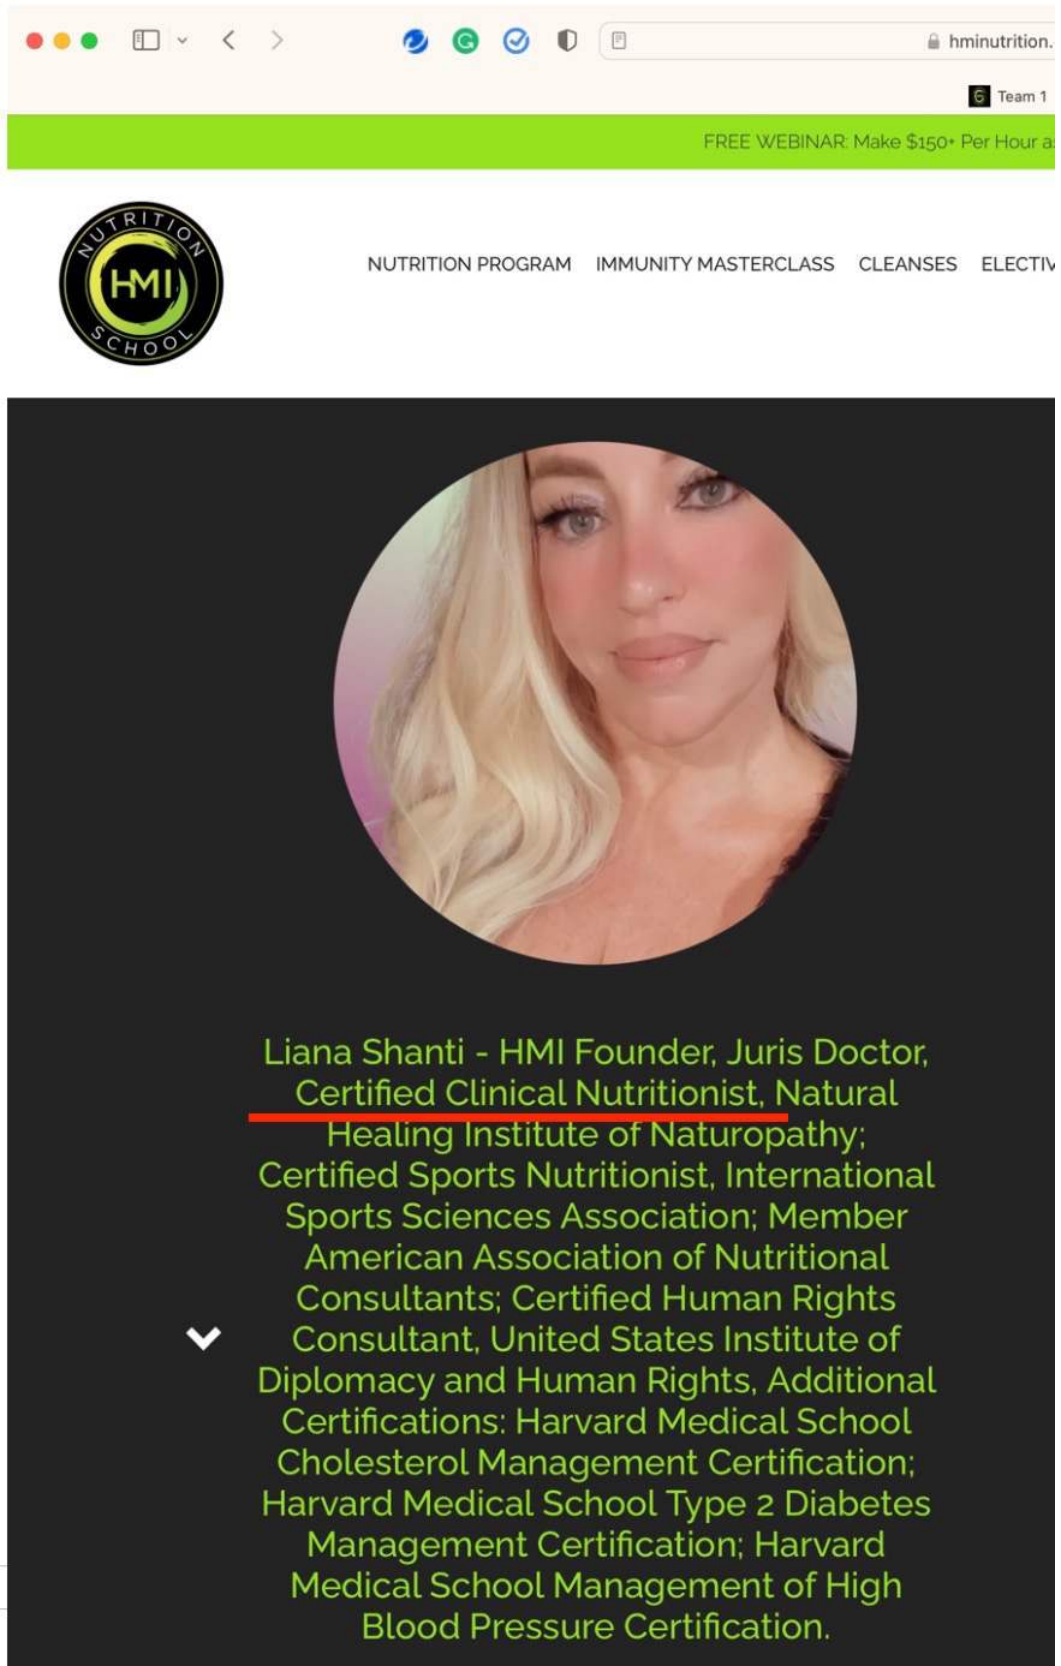

D [REDACTED] C [REDACTED] has confirmed that the Clinical Nutrition Certification Board has “NO record of Liane Nancy Wilson or Liana Shanti applying or taking the CCN Exam”. Successful candidates receive certification from the Clinical Nutrition Certification Board directly. In essence D [REDACTED] C [REDACTED] has indicated that Liane Wilson does not meet the requirements of the licensing, educational and trademark standards. It would therefore be reasonable to suggest that Liane Wilsons use of the term “Certified Clinical Nutritionist” is fraudulent and confirmed to be unauthorized from Clinical Nutrition Certification Board

Under the Health Mastery Institutes founder Liana Shanti’s use of the term “Certified Clinical Nutritionist” accreditation, many students have purchased the $4800 “Health Coach” Certification on her HMI Website at great expense with the belief that she is a Clinical Nutrition Board Certified professional.

Furthermore, on the HMI website, Liane Wilson also publishes an image believed not be a true representation of herself nor does she use her legal name. Instead, Liane Wilson has posted her alter-ego “Liana Shanti” to accompany this fraudulent use of the licensed “Certified Clinical Nutritionist” designation.

Note: This claim can also be found listed on Liana Shanti’s Professional LinkedIn profile. Exhibit 11 (Below) Click here for Web

RE: HMI Liane Wilson Inquiry

To: [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email.

The Clinical Nutrition Certification Board™ does not have any record of Liane Nancy Wilson, Nancy Wilson, Liane Wilson, Liana Shanti, Chair Noelani or any combination thereof applying for or taking the CCN Exam. None of the above names or variations thereof are associated with the CCN Credential. The Certified Clinical Nutritionists™ (CCNT) is trademarked and only available through the CNCBT.

Feel free to contact me with any questions,

D [REDACTED] C [REDACTED]

Associate Director
Clinical Nutrition
Certification Board™
400 Chisholm Place Ste 303
Plano, TX 75075

The CCN Examination / Certification Candidate must:

- Satisfy the CORE Requirements
- Submit Credential Review Application and College Transcripts
- Obtain Credential Review Approval
- Complete the Post Graduate Studies in Clinical Nutrition Program (PGSCN)™
- Achieve a passing score on the online CCN Examination

HMI advertises and heavily promotes this “Holistic Health Coach” Certification where you can “make $182,000 working 1 day per week!” (Exhibit 5)

Many of the Lemurian Sisterhood members referred to as Liana Shanti “Students” have also participated in this “Holistic Health Coach” opportunity and combine it with the “Liana Shanti 12D Business School” for an extra fee of $3900. This is all part of the Liana Shanti’s self serving Eco-System.

In addition to the Liane Wilson’s claim of Certified Clinical Nutritionist, she also indicates that she is ISSA Sports Nutritionist certified. Upon further examination and confirmation from the the ISSA, it appears that Liane Wilson just completed her “certificate” March 30, 2023 which is valid for two years. It should be noted that this was 27 days after the DailyBeast article was published exposing the “Lemurian Sisterhood”. (This article included testimonials and screen shots of Liane Wilson’s nefarious actions.) The ISSA course length told by the school is 40 hours selfstudy for completion. Furthermore, the completion date registered with the ISSA seems to be contradicted by Liane Wilsons claim of having finished it “sometime last year” as posted in her Instagram post March 27, 2023. (Exhibit 3.3)

It should be noted that Liane Wilson went to Instagram March 27, 2023 and posted that she “did that last year” however ISSA records indicate otherwise.

All of the above is inclusive of the 5 Degrees that Liane Wilson regularly promotes herself online with to her students on Instagram. (Exhibit 3)

Liane Wilson has achieved a post secondary education. It would be logical to believe she is aware of the difference between a two year Degree and Certificate of training. Anything other then that, would be a clear and deliberate misrepresentation of the truth and demonstrated behaviour of intent to deceive.

Raven received what the Virginia Board of Dentistry said was "three times the average range" of sedatives. Critics say there is an "explosion of dentists treating young patients using sedation" fueled in part by the desire to increase profits by treating pediatric patients more quickly and efficiently by sedating them.

The ABC report goes on to discuss: Dylan Stewart, 5, who died after being sedated during what was called a "routine dental appointment" in Florida in 2010; Jennifer Olenick, 17, who died during surgery to remove her wisdom teeth; 22 month old Maddox Cordova who fell unconscious after a treatment for tooth decay; Marissa Kingery, 13, who died after a dentist sedated her with four different drugs during a routine dental procedure; Sherral Moore, a four year old who died after

When you spend your money to work with ANYONE... whether doctor, dentist, lawyer, accountant, teacher, you aren't just paying for a procedure. A tooth implant. A program. A group.

You're paying for EVERY SINGLE THING that person did to get where they are. Their education, their studying, their continued learning, their dedication, their hard work, their passion, their empathy, their personal sacrifices.

Because you do not get to be the best AT ANYTHING without ALL of that. Without MASSIVE dedication, focus, discipline and commitment.
