

April 13, 2023

To Whom it May Concern:

In early September of 2020 my sister, L F , moved to Fayetteville, NC with her husband. They had previously lived in Portland, ME. As the pandemic hit, L became more and more isolated and depressed. She had been laid off from her job, was burdened by Maine's extended winter, and now had the fear and uncertainty of Covid-19 hanging over her. Like so many during that time, she was afraid that things may never return to normal.

It was around this time that she discovered Liana Shanti's Instagram page. Liane catered to people's fears by proclaiming herself a psychic, shaman, healer, etc. She repeatedly posted how she predicted Covid-19 with regards to spirituality, politics, and society. She also painted herself as a savior, a safe haven during such tumultuous times.

My sister recommended that I too follow Liane, and I did. I briefly scanned her page, and from what I had seen, I agreed. She proclaimed to be a Christian. To reprimand mysticism, and pornography- both convictions I respect and uphold. However; after seeing her posts for a few weeks or so, I was baffled. Nearly EVERY post was astrology, mysticism, and nonsense. She was/is a hypocrite and a liar. I unfollowed her, but said nothing of it to L . I regret my inaction, but hadn't seen what a threat this woman was.

Sometime in the beginning of 2021, L began a discussion with me about the Mother Wound course. I thought this was a spin-off of a mother wound thing she had me watch back when she lived in Maine. I told her that I didn't feel I had a mother wound anymore- it had healed. I healed through multiple long conversations with my mother as an adult, where I was able to empathize and relate because I too was now a mother myself. There was wine and tears, and joy.

Strangely, L appeared frustrated with my response. This was one of the first red flags looking back. She was becoming very polarized in her thinking.

The second red flag was when she expressed that she had stopped smoking weed. I was really proud of her and asked for her to share her journey with my son's girlfriend who was currently struggling with the same substance. L was very vague, and seemed unwilling to really share. I found it so odd.

The third red flag was when she and Ji (her now ex-husband) had gone vegan. Ji had looked the healthiest I had ever seen him when they moved to Fayetteville. He had lost so much inflammation and weight from his early twenties' beer and pasta days. He attributed it to low carb and healthy meat consumption. Why was HE going vegan? When I asked what influenced their decision, I got more vagueness. When Ji joked about adjusting to the diet and having gas, Li got VERY defensive of the diet as if it were a person. She was short with Ji - something I had never seen before.

Ji and L moved to Raleigh in the beginning of 2021. They came to visit me a few days after I had surgery in March. We went out to lunch and had a talk about our parents moving to Florida from NY, a decision we had been impressing on them FOR YEARS. L was suddenly hesitant and pessimistic about them doing so. Her behavior was becoming more confusing by the day.

We came back to my house, talked a little more, and then they went home. We had talked about my upcoming trip to Texas, and had planned on celebrating L's birthday when I returned. While I was there, I bought her gifts, and couldn't wait to see her again. The Texas trip was amazing. I spoke to her on the phone a little, but was saving the really incredible parts for an in-person visit.

In the beginning of May, I received an email at one o'clock in the morning from L. It was so bizarre. She went over three interactions that we had had over the course of the past year. She now viewed them through lenses of hostility and resentment. She explained that she was on a healing journey and it was very important that she not be invalidated during this time. She stated that she needed time with no contact from me. I had no opportunity to say my peace- to assure her that there was ZERO hostility or resentment, and there NEVER has been. I can say that with complete honesty.

I said nothing to my parents about the letter. I didn't want them to get involved, especially since I wasn't sure how it would affect their relationship with L. In July, they called me. It was absolutely soul crushing to hear what they said. L had written them and, in her letter, she accused Jack, her father, of molesting her. Jack was in such denial that he could not comprehend what her words said. My mother was so distraught and perplexed that she asked me to read it and explain to both of them what L was saying. It was like telling someone that their most beloved family member had died.

Sometime later, L sent ANOTHER letter stating that it had recently been revealed to her that our mother had attempted to suffocate her at seventeen months old! She had the AUDACITY to thank my mother for not following through with the alleged attempted murder! We learned later that Liane Wilson is the one who told my sister about this incident via her supposed psychic abilities.

My parents were the first to connect the dots and discover the source of my sister's delusions. J and I began investigating as much as we could to find out who Liane is and what motivates her. I began expanding my knowledge on cults, cult leaders and their tactics for covert control. I was angry with Lisa in the beginning, but through education, I have been able to view her for what she is- a victim.

Last March/ April we found out that J'S had left L and returned to his parents in NY. We learned through him that they had sold most of their belongings; including their car. They had moved to Tampa, in a very expensive apartment. J said, under the advisement of Liane, that they had her recordings playing 24/7. They had both lost so much weight. They were struggling, and Lisa was becoming more polarized and fanatical. When J was on the verge of committing suicide, L accused him of being manipulative. These ARE NOT her words. These are words of a deranged and mentally ill woman who has been coerced into this cult.

L was sunshine that loved to bask in its rays. She is a summer child. She loved the beach and swimming. When she and J lived in Raleigh, L was so excited to swim in their community pool that their balcony overlooked. J had confided in me that by the time summer had rolled around, L was so brainwashed by Liane that she never swam in the pool for fear that vaccine shedding would destroy her soul! She is crippled by fear, yet Liane travels, socializes, and lives life unrestrained by the very principles she drills into her followers.

When J left, things accelerated. Over the course of the past year, L has been made the primary ambassador of Liane's attempt to rebrand herself. She now believes that her father, paternal grandmother, maternal grandfather, cousin, third grade teacher, my mother's ex-business partner's husband, a neighbor (the single true accusation), an uncle, AND myself had all molested her. The absurdity of these accusations are somehow lost on a woman who claims to have been a high profile lawyer. If my sister was put on the stand and interrogated by even the most inexperienced attorney, her story would quickly be shredded by inconsistencies. However; Liane continues to facilitate her delusions in order to supplement her agenda, and wallet.

Liane has made posts on Instagram with photos, hashtags, and VERY personal information about my parents; J S , and myself as well as my family in order to defame and shame. Some statements are flat out lies, some incorrect, and ALL out of context. My children and husband have been named. She claims that all of this libel is in response to cyber bullying and harassment; but it is simply not true. I sent ONE message to my sister in the past two years. It was on Pinterest and consisted of two links about how to identify a cult. Naming an innocent four-year-old in a slanderous and very public post is abuse. I've lost count of the times my sixteen-year-old has cried over missing her aunt, as well as anger and humiliation over these hateful posts.

Liane attempts to victimize herself and her followers. She creates "boogie-men" out of their concerned and loving families in order to keep her devotees paralyzed with fear. An example of this was on January 8th of this year. My sister put in a blog post how she had confirmation regarding attempts to silence her. L recounts a trip to the police station after fleeing her home- never to return. I'm positive Liane's "psychic" nonsense had my fragile sister in an absolute panic. She is being mentally tormented by Liane; the very same woman who claims to be her savior.

It is suspected that Liane creates alternative email addresses, and profiles in order to harass herself. She then uses this as "evidence" of attacks from innocent family members. J F had software downloaded on his computer that deleted information he had collected on Liane, as well as prevent him from finding it again via alterations to his Google results. This occurred after clicking on a link that was sent in an email that appeared to be from L . There were also suspicious links on her website devoted to slandering "family cults".

Another thing Liane does to further cripple her supporters is slander experts in the field of cult recovery and deprogramming. She brainwashes her devotees about such reputable professionals as Rick Ross, and Steven Hassan. In the event that any of her victims break away, how long will it take for them to seek help from the very authorities in cult recovery that can help effectively?

The pain that Liane has caused my family is immeasurable. I miss my sister. I love my sister. My children miss her. I am so thankful that she and J did not have children. What Liane has repeatedly done to fathers and husbands is pure evil.

She is not a shaman. She is a charlatan. She is unconscionable for egotistical and financial gain.

I know Liane will read this. These are for you, Ms. Wilson:

2 Timothy 1:7 for God gave us a spirit not of fear, but of power, and love, and self-control.

You do not know Jesus. You do not represent him. You spread FEAR.

2 Timothy 3:1-7 But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 6: 3-5 If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, he (she) is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He (she) has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension, slander, evil suspicions, and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain.

Colossians 1: 16-23 Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, and not holding fast the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments, grows with a growth that is from God.

If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations--"Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch" (referring to things that all perish as they are used) --according to human precepts and teachings? These indeed have an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but they are of no value in stopping the indulgence of the flesh.

Matthew 7:15 Beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.

Sincerely,

Kenneth